AL ROBERT N. YRGOVICH, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

Maurice Brown;

case: 2 . 1 5 C V 3 6 1

Plaintiff;

Relief sought: Be paid one-million dollars in damages,

Vs.

Jury demand

Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles (IBMV);

Type of action: A petition for redress of grievance

Defendants.

'Complaint to inform defendants they acted to suspend Brown's driving privileges, against the constitution because of 3-wrongs namely: (1) acted while knowing Brown was not convicted of a DUI; (2) acted without a fair hearing; and (3) acted under discrimination, against mentally & physically disabled people '

With Trust in God, Maurice Plaintiff sues to get relief, as offered by our constitution.

[jurisdiction]

1. The U.S. Constitution 1st Amendment (exhibit-X0), enables Brown to petition this District-court with a redress of grievance.
2. Brown's grievance is for how & why defendants suspended his license.
3. In petitioning, Brown requests judicial notice for two-notices, from the IBMV (exhibits-X1). Also notice for his driving record, advertised by the IBMV (exhibits-X2). Because they identify the plaintiff's claims.

[About parties]

4. Brown is a 54-year old disabled-person, who lives in Hammond Indiana;
5. And has 3 mental & physical disabilities namely: (1) surviving aortic aneurysm then suffering cardiac-complications; (2) a blind right-eye from glaucoma; and (3) acute anxiety attacks. That can be proven with medical-evidence (exhibits-X3).
6. With CVS prescription-evidence, Brown can prove he takes anti-psychotic meds on a 24/7 schedule (exhibit-X4).
7. IBMV operates a motor vehicle agency, at 100 N. senate ave, Indianapolis IN;

8. And in its operations, IBMV suspended license # 1670-55-3912, that pertains to this court's jurisdiction.
9. This court's jurisdiction covers 7338 Calumet Avenue, Hammond, Indiana, in which is plaintiff's address.

[introduction]

10. In SEP 2015, the IBMV claim Brown was convicted of a OWI/DUI, in an Illinois case that regards case # YB-012-666.
11. At all times relevant, Brown was not convicted of a DUI because case YB-012-666 is still at pre-trial. Pretrial is evident because Judge Thomas O'Hara set a status hearing for case YB-012-666, to be held 01 OCT 2015. O'Hara works in room 203 of the Cook County Markham Illinois court house.
12. An although finding he is at pre-trial, defendants still believe Brown was convicted of a DUI. Then be eligible for suspension. An before its suspension the IBMV wrote Brown about requesting a material error review. That was received by the IBMV, on 16 SEP 2015, via U.S. priority mail # 2315 0610 0000 4682 5364 (exhibit X5). Parcel 5364 has sworn-facts for O' Hara not convicting Brown.
13. Brown assumes defendants read parcel-5364.
14. Brown assumes O'Hara has knowledge for him not being convicted of a DUI.
15. O'Hara can be reached at 708 232-4170.

[Claims against defendants]

16. Brown claims the IBMV operates an wrongful-suspension & driving record, that started 20 SEP 2015. In regards to license # 1670-55-3916.
17. Brown claims wrongful because IL case YB-012-666, did not convict him.
18. Brown claims before suspension defendants received his request for hearing;
19. Brown claims defendants received his request 16 SEP 2015. But ignored it to causes an unconstitutional suspension & record, for license # 1670-55-3916.
20. Unconstitutional because of learning the Illinois court did not convict Brown of a DUI, as seen in its notice dated 01 SEP 2015.
21. Brown claims unconstitutional because it causes him to be denied driving privileges for getting health care for his mental & physical disabilities.

22. Brown claims discrimination because he was never convicted of a OWI/DUI.
23. Brown claims unconstitutional because defendants held parcel 5364 then suspended Brown's privileges allowed by the constitution.
24. Brown claims unconstitutional because parcel 5364 informed the IBMV that its notice, was contrary to what Judge O'Hara decided.
25. Brown believes his claims, against IBMV, are identified by the U.S. constitutional.
26. Brown claims he can rely of Judge O'Hara to prove his claims of unconstitutional.
27. Brown claims O'Hara has facts contrary to IBMV's notices dates 01 SEP.

[Cause of action]

28. An for knowing its agency caused a suspension from contrary info. But instead using its power to wrongfully suspend, it causes the IBMV to be liable for a notice that purported into suspension. That causes after effects, intended to harm Brown's disabled person, while operating a motor vehicle. That causes IBMV to be liable for maintaining a wrongful-suspension. That causes Brown to believe he can receive one-million dollars, in damages. An for maintaining such, it cause liability for paying Brown.
29. Because the suspension was designed to be an unconstitutional-wrong. Wrong because of reasoning contrary to what O'Hara found. That subjects Brown to police stops, while driving. That causes Brown to believe in unconstitutional-wrongs.
30. An because of a unconstitutional-design, it causes Brown to claims he has a viable cause of action to be entitled to his relief sought as, one-million dollars.
31. An because of the unconstitutional-wrongs, it causes Brown to suffer from the loss of his driving privileges. That the IBMV caused by assuming O'Hara convicted Brown of a DUI.
32. An as a result thereof, it causes Brown to petition this federal court for relief because his disabilities are harmed further or continuous in nature.
33. Wherefore, Brown prays after a jury trial, his petition causes a judgment against defendants. Then an award of one-million dollars for plaintiff, please.

Right to petition in the United States

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

In the United States the right to petition is guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, which specifically prohibits Congress from abridging "the right of the people...to petition the Government for a redress of grievances".

Although often overlooked in favor of other more famous freedoms, and sometimes taken for granted,^[1] many other civil liberties are enforceable against the government only by exercising this basic right. ^[2] The right to petition is fundamental in a Republic, such as the United States, as a means of protecting public participation in government.^[1]

The right to petition is protected by the First Amendment in the Bill of Rights.

Historic roots

The American right of petition is derived from British precedent. In Blackstone's Commentaries, Americans in the Thirteen Colonies read that "the right of petitioning the king, or either house of parliament, for the redress of grievances" was a "right appertaining to every individual".^[3]

In 1776, the Declaration of Independence cited King George's perceived failure to redress the grievances listed in colonial petitions, such as the Olive Branch Petition of 1775, as a justification to declare independence:

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.^[4]

Historically, the right can be traced back^[2] to English documents such as Magna Carta, which, by its acceptance by the monarchy, implicitly affirmed the right, and the later Bill of Rights 1689, which explicitly declared the "right of the subjects to petition the king".^[5]
